Here my child, rest your head on me
Cause I'm the safest man you'll ever meet
I'll tell you a story I won't expect you to believe
About a boy who lost his reason to deceive

It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire

While I grew up, I hid behind a smile
I was never allowed to be an average child
And now the years have forced me to be a man
I find I can't go along with this meaningless sham

It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire

I want to find a new way
But I can't make it on my own
I want a partner in crime
So I don't feel so alone

So come to bed I won't disturb your sleep
Cause I've a secret I'm determined not to keep
I see you understand my point of view
You're safe because there's nothing I need from you

Ohh ohh ohh oh
Ohh ohh ohh oh

It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire
It's the death of my desire
