

White Town

"Whenever I Say Hello"

Visit "Whenever I Say Hello" on MotoLyrics.com

Feeling so young inside
Feeling nine or ten
Growing up in her arms
Made me happy again
But there was something she should have let me know
One time she should have let me go
Why do I get no reply
Whenever I say hello?

Her face so soft in the dark
But her kiss like a sunny day
My clumsy hands full of fear
Till her lips burned it all away
And when she slept I felt the world had stopped
So every living thing like me could watch
Why do I get no reply
Whenever I say hello?

A thousand hours in every day
But none of them there for me
I want them to go so quickly away
So I can have some peace
Oh won't you fall
At least say that you'll come by
What can you lose?
What can you lose?
There could be tears in your eyes
They could be tears of surprise

Looking back at the past
I wouldn't make a single change
I just wish it was here
And everything was still the same
But I guess I will never feel that way
For more than a single lovely day
Why do I get no reply
Whenever I say hello?

Visit White Town page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
