[Will Smith]

Whoo!

What? What?

Can you feel me baby?

I can feel you

No doubt, known to make it happen

[Will Smith]

I see you wanna dance huh

With your girls and your friends huh

What about me and my menz huh

Roll through in the Range and the Benz huh

Wanna jam on the dance floor till it ends huh

Tight butta get a lot of attention

I see y'all looking like a Prada convention

Can't stop staring, you fine as hell

Got my shades on though I ain't playin' myself

Mad dudes with doughs, clock your flows

No X and O's just sexy clothes

Got your dudes with the Lex and the Roves

Striking a pose

But everybody knows you want me

Come get me, here I be

In the V-I, P-I waiting for the

Yo something in your way, go through it

Pretend you got a swoosh in ya baby

Just do it

Can you feel me baby?

(Hell yeah mama, hell yeah)

Do you like it sugar?

(No doubt, no doubt)

Do you want me honey?

(You Eve baby, yo Eve)

Are you liking what you see?

(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

[Eve]

Uh, come on

So you wanna bill papa

I don't buy it, say heart stopper

Cause I move fast in the club
Where you at huh?
Big Willie Style when your dogs play the back
I like the fact that you're so low-key
But play it any lower and you won't know me
Cause I'm out the door for sure approach me
Wave your hand and come over trying to coax me
(what?)
Why you in the V-I, E-V-E too fly to drop by
Get up off your clothes and cruise by Shades high, nothing while you're with bluffing your team
Every time I'm with you blushing, your smile gleam
You don't think I know you noticing me
Come on get closer to me
Be bold take a dose of the Eve
If you're ready for your part
Cause I'm 'bout to depart
I'm your life for the rest of the night
I'm breaking hearts
[Will Smith]
Yo get your hot self over here
[Eve]
No, get your body up out your chair
[Will Smith]
What? I ball too hard for that
[Eve]
Hold up baby act like I ain't balling back
[Will Smith]
Look I ain't trying to play no games
[Eve]
Oh yeah well I ain't no regular dame
[Will Smith]
Alright, look let's meet half way
[Eve]
Well if you're getting up daddy make it all the way
[Will Smith]
Alright

Can you feel me baby?
(Hell yeah mama, hell yeah)
Do you like it sugar?
(Come on playboy, come on)
Do you want me honey?
(No doubt baby, no doubt)
Are you liking what you see?
(Uh come on, come on, come on)

I think if you're feeling me
Come and get me
There's no time to waste

Come on stop playing these games

[Will Smith]

Playing me like I'm on E! or somethin'
The big dawg like some flea or something
What? Hard to get, don't get got
Even when you're sizzling hot

[Eve]

Yeah blonde bombshell got ya sweating huh?
Stunting in the club got ya betting huh?
Can ya get it or make it yours
Guess you'll never know
Ten seconds before I bounce baby
Then I gotta go

[Will Smith]

Yo get your hot self over here

[Eve]

No, get your body up off your chair

[Will Smith]

What? I ball too hard for that

[Eve]

Hold up baby act like I ain't balling back

[Will Smith]

Look I ain't trying to play no games

[Eve]

Oh yeah well I ain't no regular dame

[Will Smith]

Alright, look let's meet half way

[Eve]

Well if you're getting up daddy make it all the way

Can you feel me baby?

(Hell yeah mama, hell yeah)

Do you like it sugar?

(Come on baby, come on)

Do you want me honey?
