Break my heart
Twist the blade so my wounds can't heal
Throw me into the water
I'll drown before I say goodbye
Dispose of me like ashes
From your bright tipped cigarette
Watch me break
As I hit the ground

I can't hurt anymore
You were the only thing I had
The closest the to oxygen
Without you I cannot breathe
Don't throw away our dreams

My eyes might as well be stone
So dull to colour
Cause I can't see anyone
The way I saw you
You were my only reason to smile
My only chance at happiness

Can you see the skin from knuckles
Hanging off your door
I tried
To punch it down
But your hinges
Were too strong
And I'm sorry
for the bloodstains
Im sorry I can't be enough
And I'm sorry

I'm sorry.....
