Amazing how
Whispers turn to screams
With the sound of no
Rejection turns to violence
All because of him
Trust turns to fear
Her idea of a good time ends
When laughing turns to silence

I can see it in her eyes
He's taking it out on her
(He's taking it out on her)
He's thinking with his dick
His mind has lost its will to think
(his mind's lost its will to think)

Tonight
Tears roll from her eyes
With screams so sharp
To cut through any night
And she'll cry
It's all because him
It's all because of him

Her eyes bleed out colour
To leave this world black and white
This is the night to end all nights
