It's dark inside the depths of my mind
My paranoia's never ending
Breathing in the reasons I'm left all alone
Never seeing my mistakes

It's easy to blame yourself
When you never do anything right
It's easy to blame yourself
Like everyone else

Lost without a hand to guide
Walking with no end in sight
Reasons to go slowly fade
The hurt is too much and I'm twisting in the blade
Trying to stop my pain

Did you mean it when those words came from your mouth?
Only say it if you mean it
Only say it if it's true
