We're waiting for anything
What ever the day might bring
Whatever that fills my mind

I'm thinking of old times past
I'm thinking about the last
Time I ever got to see your face

It's all about the times we had when we were 17
Wasting time, getting high, waiting for today
Now we live in bullshit, covered up by endless lies
Wasting time, getting high, we're fighting for today.

The days are much longer now
My heart's a big older somehow
Sometimes I think I'm just afraid

The games that we used to play
They're all emotional enemies
Now I know I'm just afraid

It's all about the times we had when we were 17
Wasting time, getting high, waiting for today
Now we live in bullshit, covered up by endless lies
Wasting time, getting high, we're fighting for today.

It's all about the times we had when we were 17
Wasting time, getting high, waiting for today
Now we live in bullshit, covered up by endless lies
Wasting time, getting high, we're fighting for today.
We're fighting for today.
