

Whitlams "Where Is She"

Visit "Where Is She" on MotoLyrics.com

Where is she?
I've been driving 'round this town
Poking my head
In the corners we used to sit, yeah

Stop for a bottle, there'll be trouble wherever I go
Some neat and sensible girl screaming for order

Who would've known, I'd be lonely
Here on my own, she's so lovely
Lovely, lovely, yeah yeah

And I loved her room
Sleep all day with no door knocks for me
Let the phone ring
And suburbs away my one ringing along with it, yeah

And I stop for a bottle, there'll be trouble wherever I go
Some neat and sensible girl screaming for order

Who would've known, I'd be lonely
Here on my own, she's so lovely
Lovely, lovely, yeah

Not together or 'sleep by her side
Get me someone to get her out of my mind
Not together or 'sleep by her side
Get me someone to get her out of my mind

Who would've known, I'd be lonely
Here on my own, she's so lovely
Lovely, lovely, yeah

Not together or 'sleep by her side
Get me someone to get her out of my mind
Not together or 'sleep by her side
Get me someone to get her out of my mind

Get her out of my mind

Visit Whitlams page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
