Above the voices cry, free me from pain, free me from lies!
Release me, for I can see the path ahead.
Forever unblessed, confused and misled, never set to rest.

Someday you'll be in the space between, earth and eternity.
Free from society. Now the night is young.
Thousands cry out. Looking for reason.
None without doubt. They gather here, in the space between.
Looking down on earth, reciting our pleas.
Above the voices cry, free me from pain.
Free me from lies.

Release me, for I can see the path ahead.
Forever unblessed. Confused and misled.
Never set to rest.
