"I Love You"

I Å´ve been living in these lies,for so long
Telling myself i live,through my songs
I have not been able to recognize when somebody smiles to my face and Calls me a Jerk,behind my back

There Å´s no point telling me that im wrong,
I live with the conviction that i should say
I Love You,i donÅ´t know why i do but I Love You
I Love You,i donÅ´t know why i do but Kom igen!

Nobody watched my back,like i watched yours
But i wonÅ´t,suddently go along like Tony did with George
(Cuz i have)I have mouth to speak with,and i will open it when i need
To tell you,you have to watch your back,not to fall

There Å´s no point telling me that im wrong,
I live with the conviction that i should say
I Love You,i donÅ´t know why i do but I Love You
I Love You,i donÅ´t know why i do but..

I Love You,i donÅ´t know why i do but I Love You
I Love You,i donÅ´t know why i do but (Since there are no lyrics anywhere else,IÅ´m not sure these lyrics are right)
