Oooh yeah
Nothing's better than family,
For the ones who love u so
Be a shoulder to cry on when u are in need
They will never leave u alone
When your friends bring u down
And they drag you through the dirt
And nobody is around
They will carry u through the hurt

Just remember that family comes first
Where u gonna run to? when no one is around Do u think think they will love u when your face is on the ground? (face is on the ground) when u feel your strength is almost gone and when your heart is getting weak (getting weak) and u don't think you can keep holding on and they stand for your feet (just remember) family comes first

I can see you crying, someone broke your heart, Instead of being with those who love you, you spend time apart, it's because you think they don't understand what u r going through so don't reach out your hand but they will pull & reach for you Just remember

Just remember that family comes first
Where u gonna run to? when no one is around
Do u think think they will love u when your face is on the ground? (face is on the ground) when u feel your
strength is almost gone and when your heart is getting
weak (getting weak) and u don't think you can keep
holding on and they stand for your feet (just

Don't u be ashamed of your family, put you into this earth, and that's what it's worth unconditionally, sometimes you may disagree and wont see eye to eye Don't u run away they will be right by your side Ooooh ohhh

Who u gonna run 2? who u gonna run to? when no 1 is around, when no one is around Just remember that family comes first
Where u gonna run to? when no one is around
Do u think think they will love u when your face is on the ground? (face is on the ground) when u feel your
strength is almost gone and when your heart is getting
holding on and they stand for your feet (just

Just remeber family comes first yeahyeah (yeah yeah yeah) comes first
