Time to dry my eyes, cause what's done is done,
Once again I was wrong thinking you were the one
I could just curl up and feel sorry for myself,
But I would rather hang tough and get back into the world

There's just no point in dwelling in the past
What's done is done and I'm moving on They're playing my joint and I'm gonna have a blast
DJ turn the music up, I'm just livin' in the zone,

So DJ turn the music up cause I'm just livin' in the zone
[x6]

There's no point in regrets of what happened yesterday
Cause today is a gift yeah that's what we all say
That is why the present is what it is called Cause everybody stumbles yeah and everybody falls

I'm rising up, a phoenix from the flames
It's my time to shine and I'm moving on I've had enough playing all these silly games
DJ turn the music up, I'm just livin' in the zone,

So DJ turn the music up cause I'm just livin' in the zone
[x4]
