[Music: D. Framer Words: R. Rose]

Hiding deep in the shadows, away from the light.
Now living in the darkness, children of the night.
Once you had a clear vision, you lived for your dreams.
Now living in a nightmare, none can hear your screams.

[CHORUS:]

You're living a lie, that you'll never die!
It's in your head, cause you're already dead!
Behind a shroud of darkness, cloaked in deadly fear
None can sense your sorrow, or see the blood-red tear!

[CHORUS:]

You're living a lie, that you'll never die!
It's in your head, cause you're already dead!
Seduced by the love of power, your life's become a lie.
Now you'll curse the sunlight, till the day you die.

[CHORUS:]

You're living a lie, that you'll never die!
It's in your head, cause you're already dead!
