

Arch Enemy "Revolution Begins"

Visit "Revolution Begins" on MotoLyrics.com

Since the day that you were born
The wheels are in motion
Turning ever faster
Play your part in the big machine

The stage is set, the road is chosen
Your fate preordained
We are watching you
Every step of the way

Never too late to stand your ground
Revolution begins in you, in me, revolution

Once lost, lost in their game
Mental chains breaking now
Set yourself free
Who are they to tell you what to do?

The stage is not set, the road is not chosen
Your fate not preordained
They are losing control
Every step of your way

Never too late to stand your ground
Revolution begins in you, in me, revolution

Never too late to stand your ground
Revolution begins in you, in me, this is revolution
Revolution
