I signed - a contract with the Devil
I've tried - for so very long I'd die - to become immortal
That's why I sing this song Am I a wannabe? - have I no dignity.
I'd give up all my life to be
In The Book Of Heavy Metal

In life - I have no religion besides the heavy metal gods wear nothing but black skin tight leather My skin's clad with metal studs
Am I a wannabe? - have I no dignity.
I give up all my life to be
In The Book Of Heavy Metal

(Some twenty years ago, the gods put down their feet, So firmly in to the ground that no man of sword nor pen, could ever change the rules upon which The very fundamentals of metal was made)

Read all about it, in The Book Of Heavy Metal !
Read all about it, in the manual!
Read all about it, in The Book Of Heavy Metal!
Read all about it, yes read it!

Don't need no flashy house, no kids or ugly man the only thing I want, is what my parents don't need no widescreen TV, no, in all honesty the only thing I want to be (to be or not to be)

In The Book Of Heavy Metal - I signed a contract with the Devil
In The Book Of Heavy Metal - I'd like to become a star In The Book Of Heavy Metal - I'd die to become immortal
In The Book Of Heavy Metal - That's why I play the guitar
In The Book Of Heavy Metal - In life

In The Book Of Heavy Metal - to death

In The Book Of Heavy Metal
