Like a big woolly mammoth
You gotta wear that coat
And like his big brother Joseph
Yeah, walkin' in the desert sand

And like a dough-boy in the trenches
You gotta lay down low
And like a big woolly mammoth
You gotta wear that coat

You ain't got no time to worry 'bout mass extinction
Just try and get along with the human beings
Big woolly mammoth gonna wear that coat
In the middle of the summertime

You got a woman in the city
She got a brand new coat
Sometimes I feel like an evolutionary reject
Yeah, livin' in a high-tech world

Like a cool armadillo
You gotta lay down low
Like the big woolly mammoth
You gotta wear that coat

You ain't got time to worry 'bout mass extinction
Just try and get along with the human beings
Big woolly mammoth gonna wear that coat
In the middle of the summertime

Another ice age is comin'
You better wear your coat
Somebody throw me a fire
So we can burn this city down

And like a dough-boy in the trenches
You gotta lay down low
And like the big woolly mammoth
You gotta wear that coat

Everybody needs some weapons of mass destruction
Gonna kill you with a virus or a dose of radiation

Like a big wooly mammoth gonna wear that coat
In the middle of the summertime

In the middle of the summertime
In the middle of the summertime
Wear that coat
In the middle of the summertime
You gotta wear that coat

Like a big wooly mammoth
Gonna wear that coat
In the middle of the summertime
