Low-down way you're feeling, the funky things you do
hey, hey, hey, let me talk to you I just wanna to whisper in your sexy ear Tell you that I love you, walk away your fear low-down, slow down, feel you go down, the funky things you do
hey, hey, hey, let me talk to you
Higher, higher, higher, how high can you go
Ride me high this morning, ride me high some more

Higher, higher, higher, how high can you go
Ride me high this morning, ride me high some more

Heeey
The way you move your body, it's a crying shame
I won't tell nobody if you will do the same
One thing that's for certain, one thing that's for sure
The less you want, the more you've got, so don't you cry for more
Higher, higher, higher, how high can you go
Ride me high this morning, ride me high some more

Higher, higher, higher, how high can you go
Ride me high this morning, ride me high some more

Heeey
