The Original Lyrics File

I opened up my eyes to see

A land of sunny rocks and funny trees

I guess (Yes,) I'm on the moon again

The heavy Earth exchanged a lighter breeze (?)

Got no coat and got no money

A pair of tennis shoes to last through may

A crater for an outdoor pool

A few good cats to help me pass the day

Havin' a good time... here today

Watching the sun shine... matinee

Never the wrong time... time we stay

Living the moontime... time we play

From here I watch the world go by

Working in a moon-type bar and grill

The word from Earth - my time is up

But here upon the moon time stands still

Got no telecommunications

Cables not long enough out this way (?)

The man in the moon is a musician
That's the way we pass the lunar day
Havin' a good time... here today
Watching the sun shine... night and day
Never the wrong time... time we stay
Living the moontime... time we play
Living the moontime... time to live it up
