"Fair And Tender Ladies"

Come all you fair and tender ladies Take warning how you court young men They're like a star
On a cloudy morning
First they'll appear
And then they're gone

They'll tell you some lovin story They'll swear to you that their love is true Straight they'll go on And they'll court some other That's the love they have for you

Oh don't you remember our days of courting You told then that you loved me best You could make me believe
If I fell out of your arms
That the sun rose in the west

I wish I was some little sparrow and I had wings and I could fly I'd fly right by to my false true lover when he's talking I'd deny but I am not some little sparrow and I've no wings and I can't fly so stay right here in my grief and sorrow and let my times pass me by
