"Givin' Up"

At least a thousand times I've tried leavin'
But each time I'd come back in a day or two
So I've made myself a promise I'll be keepin'
I'm givin' up, givin' up to you

No need kiddin' myself any longer
I'm too weak to leave it sad but true
Tried leavin' you but lovin' you is stronger
I'm givin' up, givin' up to you

I told myself to face the facts I
I'm your fool that's all I'll ever be
I've settled down to a life of pain
Heartaches, trouble and misery

So hurt me all you want to, I ain't leavin'
My mind's made up I'm gonna see it through
Well I'm lettin' myself in for lot of grievin'
I'm givin' up, givin' up to you

I told myself to face the facts I
I'm your fool that's all I'll ever be
I've settled down to a life of pain
Heartaches, trouble and misery
I'm givin' up givin' up to you
