You've broken my heart and now the tears start to fall
Why should I go on carrying if there's no love at all You've shattered my dreams and now the heartaches began We're playing a game of pretend cause there's no love at all
No love and no fun there's not much left of me Once I've thought you loved me but look how wrong a man can be You've broken my heart but someday I'm sure you will find You'll slowly go out of your mind if there's no love at all [ steel ]
No love and no fun...
