If you've got to hurt someone who really loves you
And you're looking for a way that just can't miss
If you've got to make a fool of one who needs you
Then you'll never get a better chance than this

For I love you so much it would just kill me
To find I'm just a number on your list
If your mind's made up to make somebody suffer
Then you'll never get a better chance than this

If you can't be happy till somebody's cryin'
All you've got to do is kiss that goodbye kiss
And here I am you might as well start tryin'
Cause you'll never get a better chance than this

For I love you so much it would just kill me
To find I'm just a number on your list
If your mind's made up to make somebody suffer
Then you'll never get a better chance than this
