Sweat on my conscious, sweat on my brow
Sweat on my pillow, almost every night
Breathing sound like thunder in the ears
Word are poisoned arrows from Orion
And the feel of it is...
Walking on air
And the sound of it is...
Just like breaking glass
And the smell of it is...
That make it a motion
But the truth of it is...
It's the same old love, pain and sorrow

The quick love, like acid rain
Pouring down on my soul
Am I insane?
Cause the worst of it is...
My desire
And the dream of it is...
A brown skin girl
And the shock of it is...
Just like ice in my mouth
But the end of it is...
It's the same old love, pain and sorrow
It's the same old love, pain and sorrow
Same old love, pain and sorrow
