was i wrong
off all night long
was so high
as the stinking sun
i came alive and i felt oh uh oh some guys have everything i know it's alright
ive done a lot of crawling around outside (and i heard) it's alright your sno-cone
and its piss and blood
it's in the cards
(oh,oh)
get well soon
everbody!
do all lies have a taste?
let it go

i dont know oh.. a cows neck bad shave and a low blow slo-mo
it's alright
you wont set the kids on fire oh but i might.ho
you come on sentimental if the solar cars coming, im home magne carte's on a slim jim blood brother the sunk soul with a coal clean toe is a mother that's right
when ya gonna find out
im all inside
you still might
it's alright(3x)
you wont set the kids on fire, oh but i might.ho
i'ts alright
it's alright
