

Rapture, The "Sinburnt"

Sunshine in my face as I grab for a warm embrace Reaching out but nuthin's there wish there was someway to get out of here Depressed and Cold in the heat of the sun blinded by my actions for fun I get a Sinburnt but feel nuthin' because of my actions
the burn is much deeper than skin-deep, its soul-deep Its a permanent record on my soul Suburn caused by my unwillingness to protect to protect my skin which shelters my soul

Sinburnt by all my pains and thoughts thoughts of life and death and my last breath What will it be like in the end, Only God Knows But, wait I found a warm embrace known as God's grace.
I found protection against the sin of life. I found God's grace.
God's grace is the best sunblock in the spiritual and/or physical
My fathers warm embrace was just what I needed.
God is my Lord and Savior and with his grace as sunblock
there shall be no more sin in my life that I can't deal with.
