i feel exhausted and i need some recreation i am so tired i can hardly stand today i have to come to rest i need a sanctuary where I can be alone with you my loving GOD we do not have to worry Â´bout tomorrow not to worry Â´bout today you promised that you will always be with us you will be with me and when i think about the stress IÂ´ll have tomorrow it deadens me, my courage and my confidence i need your mighty strength my heavenly creator to cast aside my fear and my an xienty no matter what will come no matter what will be i know that youÂ´re there for me
