Head forth and we're hating guilt
I tried to talk to the imbecile
Where can I go for a conversation?
Shake your head, be kinda apathy
Sick of poisoned misogyny
Ain't gonna sell down the alien nation

So I tried and I tried and I see no reply
It's a downtime, so what do you know?
Downtime, so what do you know?
Downtime, so what does it show about me?
I need a
Different kind of love
Yeah, you know that it's true
Different kind of love
Yeah, it's bigger than you

See me break at the pressure point
Where's the answer in another joint?
Where can I go for a class reunion?
From our burden is it really worth
Soul searching on the planet earth
With the guts to fight for a peace communion

So I tried and I tried just to open the eyes
It's a downtime, so what do you know?
Downtime, so what do you know?
Downtime, so where do we go from here?
I need a
Different kind of love
Yeah, you know that it's true
Different kind of love
Yeah, it's bigger than you
And it's bigger
Yeah, it's bigger

Got a different kind of empathy
Got a different kind of chemistry
Got a different kind of happening
Got a different kind of everything

I got
Different kind of love
Yeah, you know that it's true
Different kind of love
I got it bigger than you
Different kind of love
I think you know that it's true
Different kind of love
Yeah, I'm talking to you
