Times have changed, we used to be true
But you lied to me, and I have lied too
Once we could say "I love you"
But the last thing I've heard is "I hate you too"

Hate is a strong word too say
But I felt like that when you made a mistake
My heart is too hard to replace
But I feel I won't get one last chance

I wish I could erase hard times
wish I could flee from reality
I nearly gave up, I was close to death
But you stopped me and told me

Don't cry for pain
Don't cry for love
I have always been here
By your side

So take a look at me now
Don't leave me for a broken heart
I have always been here
By your side

Don't leave me, I'll heal your heart
I tell you I want a new start
I will still be here
I will still be here

I wish I could erase hard times
wish I could flee from reality
I nearly gave up, I was close to death
But you stopped me and told me

Don't cry for pain
Don't cry for love
I have always been here
By your side

So take a look at me now

Don't leave me for a broken heart
I have always been here
By your side
