Dancing in your beautiful dreams, stonecold steel
Sun is shining on your skin, dark reality
When you wake up, you find yourself bleeding

Find - find more time to rescue from yourself
Time - in time you'll see if anybody cares

You want to go back to your dreams, but the pain won't make you sleep
One dark reality, will make your sane fade away
This dark reality, will make you insane

You won't stop until...
Somebody gives a fuck

Find - find more time to rescue from yourself
Time - in time you'll see if anybody cares

Make me see myself of who I am
Break me to see how much I can take
Awake me from this nightmare
And take me away

Feel me, heal me, find me a way away from this shit
Leave me, conceal me, make me die, I don't care

I don't care...
I don't care!

Find - I found your letter to forgive your mistake
Time - it's too late to rescue from yourself

You disappeared from me
You disappeared from me

I want to look into your eyes
You disappeared from me
I want you to look back at me
You disappeared from me

I want to look into your eyes (just one more time)

You disappeared from me
I want you to look back at me (I would do anything)
You disappeared from me

I want to look into your eyes (just one more time)
You disappeared from me
