Loving you

Here I stand alone wishing for you
Wipe my tears away, knowing I want you
I just can't understand why you left me this way
All that i've done for you, you threw away

Chorus:

Loving you, has left me all alone
A wish is all I hold
Our memories is all I know
Loving you was something in the past
The dreams I sometimes had
I wish our love had last

This pain that I feel burns me inside
The thought of having you brings tears to my eyes
I would do anything if my heart could love again
I want you by my side and not as a friend
How many time again will you break my heart baby
Why did it come to an end when you said you'd always love me
I feel so lonely without you, baby come and love me
I need to feel your touch, please don't refuse me

Chorus

How many time again will you break my heart baby
love me
I need to feel your touch, please don't refuse me

Chorus

Loving you has left me all alone
All i've done for you, all I want to know
Was I another, was I another, was I another lover baby tell me
Left me like all the others
