"Music And You"

My life has music and you
But now I know if I had to choose Between you, I'd have to Go without the melody
All through the days of my youth
It seemed like the music that pulled me through
But now I realise it was you
You had the remedy
And now I sing this song for you
Music and you
And everything I try to do
Only for you
It's not for me, but only you
Only for you
They may not understand but maybe one day
They'll see the reason why I say what I say
My life had music and you
But now the music's dedicated to you
As with everything else I do
Harmony and melody
And now I sing etc
