She was glowing up, nightclub blowing up didn't have a show, but hey I'm still showing up Look at the bottles, see champagne flowing out Course I spend more than a bag when I'm mowin up Yep yep another 1 impressing her, but she ain't impressed by the fame & the dough ya kno But I jus like to see her face glowing up, so red carpet back seat r rolling up

One rule for her, one rule for me, cause she don't wanna be even I don't wanna be the one to go n pack my bags n tell her I'm leaving I'm trying to give her chance, I think she needs to learn the meaning It's no fling, I'm carrying feelings, so when I'm with u it's like I'm dreaming
