"You Want Me"

You used to think I was invisible
So small that I was indivisible
You always treated me like just one of the guys
But lately you've been acting so confused
Playing it cool but now it's me that sees through you
It's clear to everyone so don't act so surprised
C'mon, c'mon you know you want me
You think I'm sexy don't you
You think I'm beautiful
C'mon, c'mon you know you want me
C'mon and say it
You gotta face it
You know you want me
You act so tough with all your friends around
But all alone with your defenses down
What you're feeling now is way too strong to fight
You fumble every opportunity
Slow advance and then quick retrieve
Oh you see the bait but you're afraid to bite
C'mon, c'mon you know you want me
You think I'm sexy don't you
You think I'm beautiful
C'mon, c'mon you know you want me
C'mon and say it
You gotta face it
You know you want me
You want me, you want me
C'mon C'mon and say it
Yeah you gotta say it
C'mon, c'mon you know you want me
You think I'm sexy don't you
You think I'm beautiful
C'mon, c'mon you know you want me
C'mon and say it
You gotta face it
You know you want me
