Jack

There are Giants in the sky!

There are big tall terrible Giants in the sky!

When you're way up high

And you look below

At the world you left

And the things you know,

Little more than a glance

Is enough to show

You just how small you are.

When you're way up high

And you're on you're on your own

In a world like none

That you've ever known,

Where the sky is lead

And the earth is stone,

You're free to do

Whatever pleases you,

Exploring things you'd never dare

'cause you don't care,

When suddenly there's A big tall terrible Giant at the door, a big tall terrible lady Giant sweeping the floor
And she gives you food
And she gives you rest
And she draws you close
To her giant breast,
And you know things now that you never knew before,
Not till the sky.
Only just when you've made
A friend and all,
And you know she's big
But you don't feel small,
Someone bigger than her
Comes along the hall
To swallow you for lunch.
And your heart is lead
And your stomach stone
And you'r really scared
Being all alone...
And it's then that you miss
All the things you've known
And the world you've left
And the little you own-
The fun is done.

You steal what you can and run.

and you scramble down

And you look below,

And the world you know

Begins to grow:

The roof, the house and your Mother at the door.

The roof, the house and the world you never thought to explore.

And you think of all of the thinks you've seen,

And you wish that you could live in betwee,

And you've back again,

Only different than before,

After the sky.

There are Giants in the sky!

There are big tall terrible awesome scary wonderful

Giants in the sky
