(M. Henry)

Secretly..I've been formed
No one knows for sure when I'll be born
I could be early, I could be late
I could be born right on the date
But it's no secret..how I was created
And the Father above....he knows me
I don't understand..how I could be hated
and you kill me...you kill me.....
What did I do? What have I done?
Don't you want to have a daughter or a son?
You say it's your body, you say it's your life
But I'm really someone growing inside
But it's no secret..how I was created
And the Father above....he knows me
I don't understand..how I could be hated
and you kill me...you kill me.....
I cannot speak, nor can I walk
So I depend on you to please make them stop!
I have a body, with fingers and toes
And I have a heartbeat, thump-thump it goes..... thump-thump it goes....thump-thump it goes....
Please let me live.
Don't let me die
Life is something we all should try
If you don't want me, somebody will Then you can have your life...
...and I'll have my life still
