If I were to love and cherish you try not to embarrass you always want to share with you tell me would you love me everyday everyday everyday everyday everyday everyday
everyday

If I were to hold you and kiss you long always wanna sing along give up all these sad songs
everyday

If you were to trust me and hold me tight try not to make a fight
bring your bag and stay the night
And I would love you everyday
everyday

If you were to keep a smile on my face hit me up on my space
just end up at my place
I would love you everyday

If I were to take you to Costco
And the pigeon john show And then to McDonald's tell me would you love me
everyday

If I were to buy tickets on eBay to go see Le Tigre would you be my baby or maybe just love me everyday
everyday everyday everyday everyday everyday
everyday

If you were to just tell me everything I can handle anything
I messed up many things I would still love you everyday
everyday everyday everyday everyday everyday
everyday

even if your friends try and talk about us they don't know enough about us their just mad cause they don't have us and our attention
everyday everyday everyday everyday everyday
everyday everyday

If I were to kick back on the drama be nice to your mama have you in my palma
And I would love you everyday

If I was to never ever hurt you or to desert you And feed dessert too would you love me everyday
everyday everyday everyday everyday everyday

If you were to let me watch my raider game let me watch my dodger game let me watch my laker game
And I would love you everyday
everyday

If you were to tell me that you miss me kiss me kiss me kiss me be here to assist me
And I would love you everyday
everyday

everyday

And I would love you everyday everyday everyday

If you were to keep a smile on my face hit me up on my space
just end up at my place
everyday
