Why weren't you the one who tugged me in bed last night

Why wouldn't you give me a hug to say goodnight

Am i not worthy for your love this is hurting me from the inside

I know i'm not cute enough for you're love because my outside

Why are you hurting me with those bad words coming out of you're mouth

Makes me wanna go crazy wanna scream and shout

But i miss you but you don't miss me anymore

Yeah i've saided it all before

Chorus:

Love is hurting me like a bang on my head with a stone

Feeling all the moments so alone

Hitting some tunes on my guitar

Somedays i dream of becoming a star

But that's not for me

It wasn't ment to be

-----

I've a memory back in my mind

One you'll never find

It's a memory about a girl kissing a boy and she says i love you

Remember that no you won't because you wanted to forget don't you

How did this fell apart?

Why do i have a broken heart

Is this normal to feel?

Is this a nightmare or is this for real?

There are feelings i take to my grave

Am i in danger Or am i save

Let me know if you love me

Or will you leave me
