Sleeping Satellite

I blame you for the moonlit sky
and the dream that died with the eagle's flight I blame you for the moonlit nights when I wonder why
are the seas still dry?
Don't blame this sleeping satellite

Did we fly to the moon too soon?
Did we squander the chance?
In the rush of the race in the reason we chase is lost in romance and still we try to justify the waste for a taste of mans greatest adventure.

I blame you for the moonlit sky
and the dream that died
with the eagle's flight
I blame you for the moonlit nights
when I wonder why
are the seas still dry?
Don't blame this sleeping satellite

Have we got what it takes to advance?
Did we peak too soon?
If the world is so green then why does it scream under a blue moon?
We wonder why the earth's sacrificed for the price of its greatest treasure

with the eagle's flight
I blame you for the moonlit nights
when I wonder why
are the seas still dry?
Don't blame this sleeping satellite

And when we shoot for the stars what a giant step have we got what it takes to carry the weight of this concept?
Or pass it by like a shot in the dark miss the mark with a sense of adventure

Don't blame this sleeping satellite

I blame you for the moonlit sky
with the eagle's flight
I blame you for the moonlit nights
when I wonder why
Don't blame this sleeping satellite
