There is a rock
And 100 yards away
There is a stone
There is a house

And on the other side
There is a stream
Where we cool our feet
When we get home

When we get home
Home from work
When we get home
From work

Victorville
Seems so far away
Out on the edge
Of the Mojave

We light a fire
With tumble weeds
Cast out our shadows
Like Joshua trees

When we get home
Home from work
When we get home
From work

When we get home
Home from work
When we get home
From work

Every night
Around 10 p.m.
We find a bed
And lay down our heads

The warm wind blows
Across the window shade

And we dream about
Moving away

When we get home
Home from work
When we get home
From work

When we get home
Home from work
When we get home
From work

When we get home
Home from work
When we get home
From work
