"Lonesome Cabin"

In my one room little cabin, just me and my little girl
alone
In my one room little cabin, just me and my little girl
alone
It makes a man feel so good when she wrap way back in your arms

The little room is so small, I can't even put up no cookin' stove
The little room is so small, till I can't put up no cookin' stove
But you can tell from the weather, it's so cold, so cold outdoors

I could hear it rainin', and see the lightnin' flashin' on my window pane Could hear it rainin', could hear it rainin', and I could see the lightnin' flashin' on my window pane
But the little girl lay her head up in my chest and said "I love you, and I'm not ashamed"
