an alley a back porch step a country mile, white water shore the border a stretch in a field, battle ground parlor the wild west, reservation the

it's one thing for you and another for me, and i'd give away all i own just to stay here with you. . .

derailed boxcar lonesome prairie running from home, the 98th meridian the pacific the empty blue, playground forest garden, 448 4th avenue easy street city by the bay, dump park traffic,

snow drift volcanic base the tetons, chaos order fold, dark mood nostalgia a reality, in the grass when the sun fades rain on the way, habit hunch a= ccident, it's the dew of youth. . .the response of age. . .and it's feeling the same
