Every little town has its own diversion
Every little hole has a corner you can hide
And every little smile has got something that you can't forget
If you do it's like closing your eyes

Take your first shot if you think that you've got one
Take the first shot if you're coming after me
Take the best shot, do the worst that you can
Take the first shot cause that's all you're gonna get

EL Conquistador knows that you've seen him
Slowly disappears into the shadows of the night
If you find yourself dancing with your demons
Take your best shot, cause you're fighting for your life

Take your best shot if you think that you've got one
Take the first shot if you're coming after me
Take the best shot, do the worst that you can
Take the first shot cause that's all you're gonna get
Take the first shot cause that's all you're gonna get
