I wanna know how to feel,
Are you ready to love me?
Are you ready to want me, girl?
She's got a way with those, she's got a way with those eyes,
She could see right through
And I'm gonna want all of you

Each night starts with a quick glance,
And each night's ruling my heart
The thing is this whole time I haven't been breathing,
Now it's about time, are you ready to start?
Feelings go through;
I wanna be the witness to your locked-door quickness
Can I think about everything you're telling me?
This love is not true,
There's a meaning in the minor notes,
Are my words gonna make you choke?

She said it's only for one night and everything's all right
She's working magic like it's meant to be These pyromantics are so bright, she's saving nothing
for next time
She's gonna run me down
Girl amaze me and drive me crazy, break my world in two
And I will wake up, shaking on the bedpost, whiter than a ghost

Once upon a tragic time there was a boy who lost his mind
He fell into a pretty pretty little girl,
And he never got a chance to learn
These hearts won't stop
These minds won't not
And I hated the way that today I kinda fell into
And wouldn't get the time to say...
Now I'm gonna find out what she wanted

She said it's only for one night and everything's all

She's working magic like it's meant to be
These pyromantics are so bright, she's saving nothing
for next time
She's gonna run me down
Girl amaze me and drive me crazy, break my world in
two
And I will wake up, shaking on the bedpost, whiter than
a ghost

Kinda funny how it felt so right?
Kinda funny how it changed my life?
If only I could take it back Aint it funny how it felt so right?
Aint it funny how it changed my life?
I could tell it you 100 times,
The tragic tale of the boy who lost his mind

Kinda funny how it felt so right?
Kinda funny how it changed my life?
I could tell it you 100 times,
The tragic tale of the boy who lost his mind

She's working magic like it's meant to be
These pyromantics are so bright, she's saving nothing
for next time
She's gonna run me down
Girl amaze me and drive me crazy, break my world in
two
And I will wake up, shaking on the bedpost, whiter than
a ghost
