You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around

Start it up with a single touch
If I said I'd leave it'd be a bluff
I'm locked and loaded it's so clear
I'm alone I'm insane
She's my hometown hurricane
The weather's better from out here

I can think
I can dream of you
But that gets so quizzical
And maybe I'm a bit less suitable

Ooh, ooh
Shine like a centerfold
Tore out your page to keep you right here
Ooh, ooh
My head is spinning now
Rotate it and turn my world around dear

You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around

Run away it's a test
If I fail I must confess
My mind will wonder at times dear
I'm alone I'm insane
It's the only price I pay
To ride this storm out
With the sights so clear

I can think
I can dream of you
And it comes off lyrical
You stole the show

Ooh, ooh
Shine like a centerfold
Tore out your page to keep you right here
Ooh, ooh
My head is spinning now
Rotate it and turn my world around dear

You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around
You keep spinning around

You're irresistible
I can't get a grip I know
Focused on your moving so slow
Am I predictable
You've heard it before I know
But it's alright alright alright

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh

You keep spinning around
