One moment

I never could imagine such love in my heart
How could it have happened so real from the start, yeah
It's not a mere coincidence, much more than a lovely chance Love came to us so perfectly, we're destined for romance

It only took one moment, it only took one moment with you
It only took one moment, sent from heaven above
The first time I saw you, I saw love, yeah

Love left me so stranded out on a cold winter's day
With one touch you warm my heart and in my arms you will always dance Crave that taking over me till you came, my love is all I see Give me feelings more than words can say, more than I could dream, yeah

You were, it only took one moment with you
It only took one moment, sent from heaven above
The first time I saw you, I saw love

I would stand on a mountain and tell the world about our love
I would do anything, go anywhere for us
With you now my life is so complete
As I think in this one moment, I've got everything I need

It only took one moment to fall in love with you, one moment
It only took one moment, sent from heaven above
It only took one moment to fall in love with you, one

Only one moment, only one, only one moment Only one moment, only one

Only one moment, only one, only one
