You pushed me down
For all the world to see
I guess that's your price
For my loyalty
So while you tasting sin
And swallowing pain
Don't look at me
To take your blame
When your willing to render
To the guilt you concede
When truth is your reason
Then lay that blame on me
When you unveil a conscience and with peace you agree
When love is your constant
You lay me out
In hopes that I'd wilt away
But strength rained down
And love provided shade
So while the pageant of lies
Still glow from you tongue

Don't blame me for

Your Kingdom Come

Questions your answers

Truth has no anger

Gather up your words

Redemption now offered
