In the air i'm tasting your perfection forgive me dear for my misdirection as i crawl beneath this torture you adore i fall face to face with my scars you've ignored chorus:
so tell me why it don't feel the same tell me why i've got to feel this way yeah you leave, you're gone and i'm left here with the blame
all my props i swear they were in order even with the warnings of your thunder now i pause to let my silence scam tonight awhile you roam like a serpent satellite
