Watering hole

You make our room into a sea

Not easy to see

You want to make things grow

Hammer and spikes come from your hose

You could have built a fire

I try to stay floating by the walls

You say I don't have to see them

You are really close

Sliding with your chainsaw

Fingers and toes

Drowning in their voices

Let go of my ear, I'm not your boy

I'm a man, I'm not your toy

I am a fuse in your machine they just tested

Ready to blow

You never bleed

You just sweat all over

I can't swim

Diving is same as dying

I don't wanna turn another page

I'd rather start a hole new book

Wanna replace the one you took away from me

I will kill you

I will kill you

I've got lot of reasons why I'd kill

I will kill you

I will kill you

I've got hundred reasons why I'd kill

I will kill you

I will kill you

I've got thousand reasons why I'd kill

I will kill you

I will kill you

I don't need no reason why I would kill

I would kill
