"Strike Back"

I love this people,
My brothers,
My Family,
My reason to fight against injustice,
We took decisions to keep on fighting,
to keep on standing together,

I know the way they are,
and I will never forget them,
This is the limit line,
To Strike Back

To Strike Back (Against your fears)
Strike Back (So Dry your tears)
Strike Back (Against your fears)
Strike Back (So Dry your tears)

Vices and selfishness,
won't lead you to anything right,
It's your decision to go ahead,
And to protect your life,

I know the way they are,
and I will never forget them,
This is the limit line,
To Strike Back

To Strike Back (Against your fears)
Strike Back (So Dry your tears)
Strike Back (Against your fears)
Strike Back (So Dry your tears)

Strike Back!
