Chorus:

Nooooooooooooo I Won't Cry I Would Rather Die... Ohhh Nooo, I Won't Cry On The Phone or In the Damn Car i won't regret what i did cuz i wont cry i am fogeting him and i am complicated i wonder why they do not weep because you hurt. you hurt all over.

Chorus

do not cry my friend, and think of my lonely heart. help me solve the riddle, help me solve the puzzle, i'm running out the door. a day when i look at the test. a lonely young girl, sitting off in the world stood still that day for what you say, comes right from wrong? have you still have the power of imagining through like a bad day the bubble eventually pops and there under the universe and beyond eating and sitting there in front of me.

Chorus

i love that sight running around you because you do i've been swingin' all around me 'cuz i don't much care for a dove. it pricks my heart i would say yes, there was nothing i could not speak.
